

My Bio

My name is Andrew Powell A.K.A Real Tee, A.K.A Realist Cleaness. Real Tee is a reggae dancehall Artist from Jamaica who discovered his talent at a tender age. "I have been doing music from a tender age while attending Bombay Primary school, beating the desk and creating rhythm is when I realized my love and passion for music". "Then I started to realize big folks would come for me at night just to invite me to dancehall parties where I would share the stage with Culture Nox and Luciano". I later graduated from Bombay Primary and later on went to Bellfield High , where I took my music to another level. Then I started to visit friends in Kingston 11 , where my mom lived at the time, there I started my first group named Nahswitch. We did hit songs like 'She mad' , 'We nah suffer fi long' , 'Stop tek life' and many others and also performed at Sting, Saggie to the east, Crowing of Shane O and other places. Real Tee is currently running his own independent label named Real Real Records where he produces himself , Lady English , Higer Truss , Rastabiggz , R Embassida and more. Real Tee is currently now back and forth between US and Jamaica. He has released a few songs such as 'My Business' , 'Girlfriend' and 'Good Herbs' which are produced on Real Real Records, you can find those songs on all social media platforms and He recently released a new song called bend back brave and currently working on music with Tuff Link Records and Water House Records.
